The abstract must be written in English and should not exceed one page in length. Since the abstracts will be published without any further formatting, authors are requested to follow the formatting guidelines provided in this template carefully to ensure a uniform and consistent appearance. The document must be prepared on A4-size paper (210 mm × 297 mm), with margins of 2.5 cm on all sides. The text should be set in 11-point Times New Roman font (Symbol may be used wherever necessary), with all paragraphs justified.

Figures and tables may be included in the abstract, provided they fit within the prescribed page margins. They should be centred and may be placed side by side, where appropriate. Text should not wrap around figures or tables. Table captions (8-point font) should be centred above the respective tables, while figure captions (8-point font) should be centred below the respective figures. Figures and tables should be placed as close as possible to their first mention in the text. All figures must be of sufficient quality and resolution for publication.

References should be listed at the end of the abstract in the order in which they appear in the text. The references should be formatted in 10-point font and aligned to the left. In the main text, references should be cited using numbers in square brackets, such as [1], and placed before the corresponding punctuation mark. Two references cited together should be separated by a comma [2,3], while three or more consecutive references should be indicated by the first and last reference numbers separated by a dash [1–3]. The abstract must be submitted in PDF format. To ensure consistency in the published abstract book, only Times New Roman, Arial, and Symbol fonts should be used throughout the document, including in figures.
